

THE CORPORATION OF THE TOWN OF OAKVILLE

BY-LAW NUMBER 1984-257

A by-law to designate certain property as property of historic and architectural value and interest (301 Palmer Avenue)

THE COUNCIL ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

1. The property known municipally as 301 Palmer Avenue is hereby designated as a property of historic and architectural value and interest pursuant to the Ontario Heritage Act, for the reason set out in Schedule "A" to this by-law.
2. The property designated by this by-law is the property described in Schedule "B" to this by-law.

PASSED by the Council this 17th day of December, 1984.

Mayor

Clerk

SCHEDULE "A"

By-law 1984-257

REASON FOR DESIGNATION:

The dwelling was constructed in 1910 and is a well preserved example of a house built during the Edwardian era. This period manifests itself in North America as a simplification of late Victorian architecture.

In 1875, the property was owned by Charles Horace Lusk, a physician and teacher who married Jerusha Potter in 1867. Miss Potter was the daughter of John Potter, a shipbuilder and carpenter, who was an Oakville Councillor in 1856-58.

SCHEDULE "B"

By-law 1984-257

ALL AND SINGULAR that certain parcel or tract of land and premises situate, lying and being in the Town of Oakville, in the Regional Municipality of Halton and Province of Ontario, and being composed of parts of Lots number One, Two, Three, and Four in Block 42 as shown on a map of the said Town drawn by R.W. Kerr, Esquire, Deputy Provincial Surveyor, dated the first day of August, 1836, and recorded in the Registry Office for the Registry Division of Halton (no.20) on the 12th day of January, 1850, and which may be more particularly described as follows:
